Vanguard delivers greater transparency around cost of investing

We are pleased to announce that we are compliant with the RG97 enhanced fee disclosure regulations.

To give you greater transparency around the cost of investing in our managed and exchange traded funds, we have developed a new Transactional & Operational Costs Guide, available on vanguard.com.au to supplement our product disclosure statements (PDSs).

You can find information about other fees such as management costs in the PDS for your Vanguard fund.

We look forward to continuing to give you the best chance of investment success with our low-cost, high-quality funds.
